Warsaw, November 7th–18th 2013

under the honorary of the President of the Republic of Poland

Bronisław Komorowski

BULLETIN No. 1

9th Nov 2013

First seeded Russian team won a match against Serbia. Though it finished only with 2,5-1,5, Russian players were not in danger on any of the boards. A single win after a very interesting game of Morozevich gave Russia first victory. Second seeded Armenia wasn't able to beat Bulgaria. Four draws including a crucial game between Topalov and Aronian gave a team from Balkans a precious points gain. Other seeded teams won – France against Slovenia (2,5-1,5), Ukraine against second Poland team (3-1) and England against third Poland team (3-1). Azerbaijan made a draw after a very interesting and double-edged match against Sweden. Hungary won with a spectacular win of Judit Polgar, and the biggest surprise was a defeat of Netherlands against Austria.

In women tournament favourite teams won with a big point difference: Ukraine – Azerbaijan (3-1), Russia – Czech Republic (3-1), Georgia – Austria (3,5-0,5), Poland – Italy (3,5-0,5). Games were, as always in women chess, double-edged and interesting. Russian champion, Gunina, won to Kulovana despite of inferior position after opening. Similar situation happened to polish champion, Monika Socko, who also won worse position with a little help of her opponent. The biggest surprise was a defeat of Germany 2,5-1,5 against Greece.
