BULLETIN No. 9

18th Nov 2013

And this is it. After 10 days, 9 rounds and over 1000 games we reached the end of the tournament. The event was very dramatic, full of fighting and emotions, fascinating for the spectators and chess players all over the world. Every day, from start till the end of the round over 10,000 chess spectators were following games on the official broadcast, staying with the games till the very end. Many supporters were also visiting the playing hall, desiring to see the chess prodigies and world's best players. It was the tournament, where supporters could watch game of such known players as Aronian, Topalov, Caruana, Grischuk or Kosteniuk, Dzagnidze and Lagno in the women section. Many Polish spectators were focusing of Polish national teams – organizers had three teams in each tournament and women's first team was a candidate for a medal.
